Dr. Lilian Asomugha Honored by Carson Councilman Mike Gipson at Women in Leadership Breakfast – Published April 10, 2010

CARSON – On April 10, 2010, Dr. Lilian Asomugha, President of the Asomugha Foundation, was honored by City of Carson Councilman Mike Gipson at the 4th annual Women in Leadership Breakfast. The annual awards ceremony highlights extraordinary women in Southern California having a profound impact, both locally and abroad, through their exemplary leadership in service. Among the honorees were California State Senator Gloria Romero, Councilwoman Janice Hahn, and FM radio personality Nautica De La Cruz.

“I am grateful for this honor and humbled by the service of all the outstanding women honored today,” Dr. Asomugha stated as she received her award. She gave thanks to Councilman Mike Gipson and her fellow honorees and vowed to remain steadfast and passionate in her efforts to improve the lives of widows and orphans.

The event was a moving reminder of the impact women have in creating thriving and sustainable communities. Councilman Mike Gipson exclaimed, “I take pride in offering this opportunity for women to not only take the center stage, but also to provide a vehicle for women to learn from and inspire each other. I especially look forward to the new friendships and camaraderie that will be established as a result of the event, because as a former world leader once said ‘the fastest way to change a society is to mobilize woman.’”
